

Data protection

Rights of data subjects whose personal data are being processed

Dear research participant,

In order to ensure transparency with processing of personal data, the General Data Protection Regulation of the European Union provides for information of data subjects about their rights in this context. As data subject whose personal data is being processed within the scope of your participation in our studies, in principle you have the following rights insofar as in single cases no legal exceptions apply:

- Access (Art. 15 DS-GVO)
- Rectification (Art. 16 DS-GVO)
- Erasure (Art. 17 Abs. 1 DS-GVO)
- Restriction of processing (Art. 18 DS-GVO)
- Data portability (Art. 20 DS-GVO)
- Withdrawal of consent (Art. 7 Abs. 3 DS-GVO)
- Right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority (Art. 77 DS-GVO). For the Max Planck Society, this is the Data Protection Authority of Bavaria, Postfach 1349, 91504 Ansbach, Germany.

Internet: www.lda.bayern.de/en

Prior to participation in any study, you will of course be informed about that study, and your consent will be obtained. In case you have further questions regarding the General Data Protection Regulation in the context of personal data being processed in our studies, you can contact the Data Protection Officer of the Max Planck Society:

Heidi Schuster
Hofgartenstraße 8
80539 München, Germany
Phone: +49 89 2108-1554
Email: datenschutz@mpg.de

You can also use the following mail for local contact at the MPIAE:

E-Mail: dataprotect@ae.mpg.de